The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 21, to Tuesday September 24, 1751.

Naples, Sept. 3.

ON the 26th paſt, their Majeſties, attended by their Retinue, ſet out for Caſerta, to take the Diverſion of Shooting, and returned the ſame Evening to this City. The new Frigat of War of 36 Guns, which was launched from the Stocks in the Preſence of their Majeſties on Saturday laſt, is named the Notre Dame de la Conception, and is reputed to be a complete Ship. She was built by Direction of a Perſon in the Secretary of State's Office, whom the King has ordered to inſpect the Building of two new Shebecks.

Rome, Sept. 7. On the 27th paſt M. Figaroe had an Audience of the Pope, relating to the Affairs of the Archbiſhoprick of Toledo. On the 30th the Equipage of Cardinal Portocarrero departed for Parma, for which Place his Eminence propoſes to take a Journey. On the 31ſt Inſtant departed for Civita Vecchia, the Siſter-in-Law of the French Ambaſſador, to embark on board one of the Pope's Gallies for Marſeilles.

Modena, Sept. 6. M. Sabbatina, Biſhop of this City, has cauſed publick Prayers to be put up in all our Churches, to emplore the Almighty to ſend us Rain: He has likewiſe publiſhed a Paſtoral Letter on the ſame Occaſion; and great Reaſon there was for it, as the exceſſive Heats we have had for a long Time paſt, have cauſed ſuch a prodigeous Drought, that all the Graſs has been in a Manner quite burnt up, by which Misfortune the Cattle have ſuffered very much. Their Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs our Sovereigns are ſtill at Maſſa, where 'tis ſaid they will remain till the 12th or 15th Inſtant.

Turin, Sept. 7. Count Bogin, Secretary at War, is ſhortly to ſet out for Milan, in order to terminate, in an amicable Manner, with Count Chriſtiani, whom the Queen of Hungary has appointed for that Purpoſe, the Differences which have ſubſiſted between this Court and that of Vienna, in Relation to ſeveral Demands the Empreſs Queen has upon the Countries ceded to his Majeſty by the Treaty of Aix-la Chapelle.

Petersbourg, Sept. 7. We have received Advice from Cronſtadt, that the Fleet which was equipping in that Port, were all diſarmed, agreeable to the Empreſs's Orders. Laſt Sunday Evening her Imperial Majeſty arrived here from Peterſhoff, and was ſaluted at her Entrance into this City by a general Diſcharge of the Cannon of the Fortreſs and of thoſe of the Admiralty.

Florence, Sept. 10. All Difficulties being removed with Regard to the Building the Suburbs to the City of Leghorne, an Edict was publiſhed by the Regency on the 6th Inſtant, allowing certain Privileges and Exemptions to ſuch Perſons and Families as ſhould build Houſes, and eſtabliſh themſelves there. The Commerce of Leghorne is greatly alarmed by the frequent Captures which the Barbary Pirates make in Sight of that Port, to the infinite Prejudice of the Trade of it.

Prague, Sept. 13. The Troops which form'd the Camps of Collin and Pilſen began to march this Morning for their reſpective Quarters. The Regiment of Archduke Charles, and thoſe of Konigſegg, Wolfenbuttel and Philibert, are expected here in Garriſon To-morrow and the Day after. Prince Piccolomini commands in Chief the Troops quartered in this Kingdom till the Arrival of Count Brown, whom the Empreſs Queen has lately appointed to that Command. Prince Lobkowitz ſet out from hence this Morning for Vienna, from whence he will proceed to his Poſt in Hungary.

Vienna, Sept. 15. On Sunday laſt, being the Anniverſary of the Turks raiſing the Siege of this City in the Year 1683, the ſame was obſerved as uſual. On this Occaſion a ſolemn Proceſſion was made to the Metropolitan Church, at which the Empreſs Queen, who came purpoſely from Schonbrun, aſſiſted; after which Te Deum was ſung to Muſick, and a triple Diſcharge was made of the Cannon upon our Ramparts. On Friday laſt a long Conference was held at the Palace upon the Affairs of the Empire, and the next Morning Count Colloredo, Vice Chancellor, went to Hollitſch, to communicate the Reſult of it to the Emperor, whoſe Return from thence to Schonbrun is fixed for Saturday next. 'Tis now the general Opinion that Prince Charles of Lorrain will not ſet out from hence for his Government of the Low Countries till towards the 20th of next Month. Yeſterday Prince Lobcowitz, who arrived here on Monday laſt from Prague, was admitted to an Audience of the Empreſs Queen at Schonbrun, and next Week he propoſes ſetting out for Hungary, in order to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Troops in that Kingdom.

Genoa,

[Price Two-Pence.]

Genoa, Sept. 15. A general Aſſembly of the Council of this Republick was held here Yeſterday, when a Reſolution was taken to make the Port of this City a Free Port for ten Years, and to leſſen conſiderably the Duties upon all Merchandizes that ſhall be brought here in Foreign Veſſels; and in Caſe it appears, at the Expiration of that Time, that our Commerce has reaped that Advantage which is naturally expected from it, the Serene Colleges, and the Directors of the Bank of St. George, have Liberty to prolong it for five Years more. We have juſt received Advice that four Barbary Chebecks have taken a Neapolitan Polacre, and one of our Barks, from under the Cannon of Montenero. The laſt Advices received by this Government from Corſica are not ſo favourable as we could wiſh, ſome of the Pieves or Communities, and particularly that of Niolo, having refuſed to ſubmit to the new Regulation, and even taken up Arms in their Defence, which obliged the Marqueſs de Grimaldi to ſend a Body of Genoeſe Militia againſt them, with whom they have already had ſome ſmart Skirmiſhes

Stockholm, Sept. 16. The whole Court is expected here on Saturday next from Drottingholm. A conſiderable Quantity of Gold and Silver Medals are ſtriking at the Mint, which are to be diſtributed amongſt the Great Officers of State, the Senators, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at their Majeſties Coronation. The Baron de Roſen, who commands in Chief the Swediſh Troops in Finland, has acquainted the Court, that the new Forts which he had received Orders to erect upon the Frontiers of that Province, were almoſt completed, as were likewiſe the new Works that were ordered to be added to the Fortifications of the Town and Port of Helſingfort.

Copenhagen, Sept. 18. Their Majeſties, who arrived here on Monday laſt from Jagerpreys, ſet out this Afternoon for Friedensbourg, where they propoſe ſtaying till towards the Middle of next Month. The two Ships of War which have been equipping here for ſome Time paſt, are now ready to put to Sea; they are named the Nelleblad and the Bourbon, and 'tis ſaid are bound for Tranquebar, in order to protect our Settlements and Commerce on that Coaſt. For theſe five or ſix Days paſt we have had ſuch violent Tempeſts, that ſeveral Ships have been drove on Shore, and others caſt away.

Berlin, Sept. 20. On Wedneſday laſt the King, accompanied by the Prince of Pruſſia, arrived here in perfect Health from Sileſia. His Majeſty alighted at the Caſtle, where a great Concourſe of Nobility and Gentry were aſſembled to compliment him on his Arrival; that Night he ſupped with the Queen Mother at Montbijou, and the next Morning ſet out for Potzdam.

Paris, Sept. 26. His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty came laſt Sunday, in great State, with all the Royal Family, to the Church of Notre Dame in this Town, and aſſiſted at the Te Deum which was ſung there on the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy.
